J. Reuben Clarke New Counselor In Presidency

S. O. BENNION NAMED AS PRESIDENT OF SEVENTY.

Among other items of business at the recent Annual Conference in Salt Lake City last week was the filling of vacancies in the General Authorities of the Church. So far no one has been named as Presiding Patriarch.

J. Reuben Clarke, Jr., former Ambassador to Mexico was chosen as Second Counselor to President Grant in the First Presidency, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of President Nibley some time ago.

The new Counselor is a man of national and international repute, and although not widely heralded, has had a life full of activity, and probably is one of the world's best authorities on International Law. Time after time he has severed his relations with the Government, and as often has been recalled again to assist in some phase of public life. Never having sought public positions, it is a tribute that he should ascend in Government confidence to the post of under-secretary of state and lastly Ambassador to Mexico because of his personal qualifications for the job. Disappointment in the only two efforts he made at a chosen profession in government, circles that of Secretary to Senator Smoot, and Senator from Utah, at the same time he has ascended the ladder past all these posts, and his star seemed to be set in the public life of the nation.

To the new office in the First Presidency, besides bringing a life full of activity and devotion to his church, he will bring a knowledge of public affairs that should prove a distinct asset to the people of the Church and the first Presidency in particular.

Samuel O. Bennion, for twenty three years President of the Central States Mission was named to the Seven Presidents of Seventies, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Joseph W. McMurrin.

In statistics presented $3,044,809.54 had been expended by the Church in 1932 and $715,843.64 had been used for charity. The items making up this amount are: Construction of Ward and Stake Houses, $240,511.15; Ward maintenance, $65,581,03.05; Stake maintenance, $226,179.58; Church schools, $609,467.95; Temple maintenance, $166,163.64; Maintenance of Missions and building of places of worship and other buildings in the Missions, $871,908.21; Charitable purposes, $272,163.64. Added to this for charity is $443,680 in Fast offerings and Relief Society organization donations.

The birth rate in the population of the Church is 28.3 per thousand; the marriage rate, 13 per thousand, and the death rate, 7 per thousand. Nearly 65 per cent. of the Church members own their own homes.

JOLLY PARTY HELD

A group of about 20 people headed by Mrs. Lettie Litchfield, motored to A. J. Walton's farm, Tuesday night for the purpose of a surprise on Mrs. Retta Walton. Mrs. Walton, however, had sensed something and had her lamps shining and a tub full of hot cross buns ready. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Something in the air—Is it possible Lettie you spoke too loudly as you were passing that way on your return from Lethbridge? You remember the day you smashed those tumblers. —Contributed.

Raymond Second Ward Busy

In line with the Clean-up and Beautifying program of the Town, the Second Ward people were busy this week on the outside of their beautiful Chapel, fixing up things, and improving the surroundings.

Parking lots are being fixed up on the outside of the Chapel lot on the west and the north sides, and that on the west will go on up past the Japanese Temple, and members of this congregation were helping 2nd Ward members on the west street on Monday and Tuesday. The ground is being levelled off even with the sidewalk and moved back into the barrow pit, and then covered with a liberal supply of cinders, which are being continually worked and packed down to hold them in place. There were about fifteen teams and several truck-hauling on Monday besides the teams used at the street for plowing and fresco work. F. Jaque is chairman of this work.

As soon as the condition of the ground will permit, the inside of the lot will be smoothed out and landscaped and planted to trees, shrubs, lawns, etc. to beautify the Chapel surroundings. The ground has been so wet that this work has been held up. D. L. Galbraith is in charge of this project.

Work is still going on inside the building too. The Chapel part of the building is nearly all covered with Celotex, and as this has gone on it has been stippled and the steel arch coverings tinted to carry out the window coloring. The cornice between the walls and ceilings is also being covered with Celotex, and this will be tinted to break the endless white of the walls. Flooring was also unloaded Monday, for the flooring of another of the large upstairs rooms, and little by little the work is being completed, and the fine Chapel of the Second Ward being made ready for occupancy throughout.

The new parking lots leading off the road will be especially welcome to motorists who always find trouble during wet weather in getting a parking place which is dry.

News Notes

"BACK STREET", TONIGHT

Gladys Strong, entertained a few of her friends at the home of her parents, last Thursday evening it being her birthday. Games were played, and refreshments served. A good time was enjoyed by all present.

The suggestion to compel horse-drawn vehicles to carry lights was defeated in the provincial House on Tuesday. This came as a surprise as the Committee had approved the suggestion.

Latest reports from the Jacks stated that Reid Kirkham, who left there suffering from an attack of tonsillitis is about recovered and will be "in there" in the Championship games at Victoria. The boys are reported to be enjoying their trip fine.

The Junior Girls of the Stake Mutuals, under the leadership of Miss Mae Snow staged a very unique and enjoyable basketball social in the High School Gym on Saturday last, which included old-fashioned dances, games, and a very enjoyable program. Everyone present had a very enjoyable time.

R. A. VanOrman Called by Death

News reached Raymond Tuesday night of the death in the General Hospital, Calgary, of R. A. VanOrman, for seven years Chief of Police in Raymond, and a man, who in this position won the respect and admiration of all for his tenacity in the performance in his duties, even though they were at times odious and very unpleasant.

Coming here from Taber, at the time of the construction of the sugar factory, he was made Chief of Police shortly after, and held the office from then until his death, filling the same with honor, and making the town safe for law abiding and peaceful citizens. The subject of ridicule and abuse by some, by most he was trusted and respected, and even those who voiced dislike of him, were forced to honor him because of his faithfulness in discharging his duties.

He was the father of a large family, nine of whom are living in Canada and four in the States. Those in Canada are: Wilford and Mrs. Jennie Vance of Raymond; Welburn and Helma of Taber, and Mrs. A. B. Cook of Coalhurst. His wife and Wilford were with him at the time of his death.

As a father he was almost the ideal. Maintaining the love and confidence of his children continually, they always sought his counsel and advice, and the home hearth was a haven at all times and a place of peace and contentment. His life was exemplary, his devotion to his church and his religious convictions as solid as his devotion to duty, and the sincere purpose which characterized his every act in life, has left its stamp on all who know him.

The flag is at half mast on the Town Hall and well it may be, for the town has lost one of her most reliable officials, and the positions he held and filled so well will be given to others, who, in all difference to their ability, will find that it will take considerable time to reach the efficiency that "Van" had developed in his years of service in these capacities.

Funeral services will be held in the Stake House on Monday or Tuesday next week as they are waiting for the children from the States.

News Notes

Keith Pilling of Cardston was a Raymond visitor on Monday of this week.

Misses Agnes Salmon and Inga Jensen were Lethbridge visitors Monday.

A. J. Wood of Magrath was a business visitor here last Monday.

Constable Wm. Ellis of Magrath was in Raymond on Monday and Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Mendenhall and son, Mrs. Lettie Litchfield, Mrs. Hazel Price and Chas. Walton were Lethbridge visitors on Monday.

The Jacks lost their game in Victoria on Wednesday night 35-28. The large floor undoubtedly had something to do with the defeat.

The Local Branch of the Bank of Montreal will remain open at noon in the future. Regular banking hours will be observed, namely 10 to 3 on ordinary week days and on Saturdays 9.30 to 12 Noon.

A bonus on sugar beets totalling $52,500 went into circulation this week, and will be a material help to beet growers of the southern half of the province. Because of the tariff and the slow movement of sugar, another bonus is not likely for some months at least.

More snow over the weekend soaked up the ground some more, and unless the weather is abnormally warm and drying, very little farm work will be possible before April 24th. Soil should be in excellent condition for a quick and vigorous germination.

Miss Velma Nalder and Kay Redd were teaching in the school this week in place of Dean Rolison and Reed Kirkham, who are at the Coast with the Jacks in the championship quest.

"Slim" Nalder went with the Jacks as Pilot and Manager. Due to the distribution of seed grain from the Poo, Elevator, Rayo Woolf, Pool Agent was unable to accompany the team.

and Wilford were with him at the time of his death.

The Raymond Merc. unloaded a car of lumber the first part of the week.

SPECIAL EASTER PROGRAM at the CAPITOL, MONDAY, Ann Haring, Leslie Howard in "THE ANIMAL KINGDOM".

Two plane crashes in France on Tuesday cost the lives of eight men, five of them army officials and three civilians.

"THE ANIMAL KINGDOM" MONDAY, with Ann Harding and Leslie Howard is not an animal picture, but a gripping poignant drama of human everyday life.

Harry Parker was here on Friday on Telephone business. He was travelling with Fred Nielson in the latter's livery car.

Pres. Evans, J. U. and C. M. Allred, and a number of other Raymond people were in Magrath on Friday afternoon attending the funeral of Mr. J. B. Rie.

The storms are holding up the work on the Golf Course. Caretaker Ritten was already to have the sand pit on the enlarged greens last weekend, but the storm prevented it. The greens this year are 26 feet in diameter instead of 20 feet as last year.

12:01 a.m. Friday morning, April 7th was a momentous moment in the States, as at that time beer became legal in 19 States, affecting about 17,000,000 people, and from news reports a great majority of these people were very thirsty and brewers in most cities had their trucks ready for delivery when the gong sounded. Some, however, held up all deliveries until 6 or 7 in the morning.

Friends and neighbors happily surprised Mrs. Harry Christie recently on the event of her birthday, and enjoyed a very pleasant evening at bridge and conversation. The party was wholly a surprise, the guests bringing a delicious lunch which was greatly enjoyed by all. Three tables of bridge were in play those present being Mr. and Mrs. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rutten, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Ern Nilsson, Miss M. Powne and Harold Morrow brother of Mrs. Christie.

Regular Session of Town Council

Work at Cemetery

A drive started last year, and to be continued this year, sponsored by the U.F.W.A. will result in the improvement and beautification of the cemetery, and the lots therein, so that it will not look quite so unimposing when conditions call us there.

May 17th, is chosen for Commemorative Day there, and there is much to be done in preparation for this day. For this reason we are mentioning the event so early. This year the officials of the U.F.W.A. hope to keep a caretaker at the cemetery and to have water there throughout the summer for watering rees, hedges and flowers. In order to defray the expenses of this work, they have asked that each lot owner pay a fee of $2.00 to cover this, and then to arrange to be there in person, or have someone there on May 17th, to take part in the work.

Those paying the allotment to date are: Miss E. Walscott, $5.00; Jas. S. Anderson, and N. E. Ekland of Twin Butte.

Ratepayers Meeting

The ratepayers meeting held in the Town Hall Tuesday evening was fairly well attended and the Pres. A. D. Woolley was in the chair.

Among civic items discussed were the canals in the town, it being the sense of the meeting that where needed a plow and this be followed up with team be used to widen ditches, shovel work.

Another item was the Town Pound and the meeting felt this should be operated for the protection of the citizens and not as a money making scheme. All should be treated alike and the street should not be free pasture for some and not for others.

The opinion was expressed by some that the Town Constable should be responsible for impounding stray stock along with his other duties, but there was a division of opinion on this matter.

A committee of two was appointed by the Chair to take these matters to the next Town Council meeting and the meeting adjourned at 10 p.m.

News Notes

The school children will not go back to school until Monday, April 24th.

A moving van was here on Saturday taking the household effects of Mr. and Mrs. Gaetz to Granum, where Mr. Gaetz has been transferred.

The Safety deposit boxes were moved from the Bank of Commerce to the Bank of Montreal on Saturday last. Ralph Bros. made the transfer.

After spending the winter in town, Reg. Cooper and family moved back to the farm on Monday of this week for the summer months.

A REAL DIRTY TRICK

It is reported that for fun's sake, and to be clever at a mid-phoned Don Wilde and when night prowled, someone at 1 a.m. sufficiently awake asked — "Does the Highway run past your place?" "Yes, Yes," drawled Don — "Would you then Please go out and stop it?"

The regular Town Council meeting was held Thursday night last, and routine business, dealt with.

Three applications have been received for the office of Chief of Police, as follows: Arlo Palmer, Ross Larsen and John Pickett. These applications were all tabled for further action by the Council and Police Committee.

The discounts for taxes were discussed, and are graduated from 15 p.c. on 1931 and 1932 taxes paid before June 30th, to 5 p.c. on current taxes paid before the 1st of December this year. The table of discount is printed on the Tax Notices which will soon be mailed.

It was decided to pay off the 1932 Bank Loan so that Warrants may be used more freely for the payment of Town taxes and running expenses.

Old Water Arrears will be charged this year as Taxes, and a Tax Sale has been ordered for July 20th, 1933.

The pay-roll was passed as follows:—

R. A. VanOrman	$102.50
O. H. Snow	102.50

RAYMOND IDLERS LOSE TWO GAMES

With Gray Kirkham, Captain and Playmaker out of the game, with an injured ankle, the Raymond Idlers, runners up for Intermediate honors in the Provincial contest, lost two games by the narrow margin of two points in each game on Friday and Saturday nights last against the Students of Calgary in the Crest Heights High School Gym.

That the Calgary players met with plenty of opposition is evidenced by the narrow margin by which they won the game, and the fact that in the last half of the game Saturday night the score was tied up on four occasions, and a time or two the Idlers were out in front by a very narrow margin.

With Gray out of the playing, it left the play making to Ken Hague on the guard line, and this left the defense somewhat below par, although Shirley and Ken gave the forwards of the opposition plenty of trouble. Webster, VanOrman and Galbraith on the front end were in the game every minute, but after playing with Gray all through the season, they were not clicking quite as smooth as usual, and the Stadiums were out to take every advantage that offered.

Well, without too many excuses, we will say that the boys have had a very good season and are certainly deserving of a big hand from the Raymond fans, and losing a Provincial title by only four points is no disgrace to any team, and we say congratulations boys on the near victory.

EASTER

This week the world over, Christians of every faith and Creed are commemorating the death and resurrection of Christ the Holy One, the Prince of Peace. What a wonderful event! What a marvellous sacrifice! What a boundless love shown toward man by the humble Jesus of Galilee.

What a dream, and hopeless world, safe for the life, mission, teachings and glorious resurrection of the Savior? How purposeless our efforts, and how hollow our every effort in every life were it not for the words of the Scriptures "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

How fitting, whether the dates be exact or not, that the Easter time be celebrated in the Spring of the year. Nature in all her ramifications feels the awakening touch of spring. Life of the vegetable and animal kingdom all respond to the urge for bigger and better things. The trees put forth their buds, the earth is clad in her green, and everything teems with the newness of life. It reaches also to man. Our spirit reach out for new worlds to conquer. If we have been dormant to a degree during the cold and chill of winter, we seem to shake this feeling and reach out to the better things in life. If our surroundings are not what they should be, springtime seems to be the time when we commence to make over again our world to our tastes and likes.

We may some of us not be ideal Christians; and true it is that we all fall far short of being the children the beneficent Creator intended us to be. But, where is the man, woman or child, but who will rejoice over the story of the sacrifice and death of the Savior, that resulted in the breaking of the bands of death and opening the pathway to eternal life and eternal progress. Take this prize out of the Gospel story, and the vitalizing influence of the Gospel is lost. How could it be otherwise?

Let us assume for argument's sake that in death we lost our identity; we ceased to know each other. All family ties are torn asunder; we have no work to perform, nothing to do for the service of fellow men or spirits. Let us endeavor to visualize an eternity of existence where we have no identity, and no knowledge of past experiences, and then answer, what manner of men would we be?

That person does not live, but who at some time reaches out for the bigger and better life. No failure is ever accounted but who rues the day he forsook the better way and turned into paths of wickedness and sin. Virtue and godliness may be its own reward, and it is. But, remove therefrom the judgment bar of God, the expectation of being judged for the sins done in the flesh, even though our expectation of the manner of judgment and rewards may differ, and how many of us would continue to fight the buffeting of Satan and his emissaries, merely for the sake of being good, if there were no system of rewards and punishments?

After all, our purpose in life is not to gain wealth, not to gain power and prestige in life, not to crush our fellow-man under our heel because we find ourselves in a position to do so; but rather to seek out the afflicted, to minister to the needy, to help the down-trodden and do good to all. How beautiful would be the dawning of this Easter Sunday, if every one who could would resolve to use their time, money and means for the uplift and benefit of mankind, instead of prostituting this opportunity and further oppressing the remainder of the human family.

What unbounded joy would fill the hearts of men, if for one day only we all made up our minds to do nothing but good and to shun the very appearance of evil. On this wonderful occasion of Easter, let us think of the Man who lived and died without money, home or friends; who suffered untold persecution and even death. And yet, who in the midst of all these things won the homage of all those who have been led to a knowledge of Him and His teachings. Why? Because he came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance, and spent his life in doing good to his fellow men regardless of their creed or color.

Be thankful for Easter and the wonderful story it brings to all of us.

Joe Elder is contemplating some more building this spring on his lot near the Opera House.

H. J. Pierce of the Safeway Store was a Lethbridge visitor Monday evening. He went in with Phil Lyman and Charley Saidl.

CORRESPONDENCE

"THE SIGN OF THE CROSS"

All over America, protest has been made, chiefly by Catholic organizations representing close to thirty million adherents, against much that is considered indecent, offensive and misleading in the moving picture "The Sign of the Cross." To the Christian the Cross is the most sacred of symbols, representing as it does the love of God for man, the divinely chosen instrument of our salvation. It is the summing up of all we hold dear, of all we hope for; the new dispensation's undying covenant of love between the creature and Creator.

Under this captivating title, and in the name of a play supposed to exalt the heroism of our forefathers in the faith, there is displayed to audiences the filth and moral degradation which the civilized world repulsed two thousand years ago. Licentious movie magnates catering to the public taste with an eye to the ticket offices, foist filthy scenes of vice upon theatre goers, a large percentage of whom are children. The catchword "art for art's sake" is supposed to justify themselves and to veneer the lurid procedure.

The chief objection of Catholics is that in our moral code the end never justifies the means. If the end of this picture is the portrayal of Christian heroism, then the Christian scenes unhistorically, misrepresenting portrayed are supposed to sugar-coat and justify the revamping on the screen of the unbridled wickedness and disgusting lubricity that brought great and luxurious Rome to destruction. Why the parading of the most sacred of symbols, supposedly set up in antithesis to the scenes of Roman debauchery, but merely a sacred instrument made to serve as a flimsy mock drapery of virtue to camouflage the portrayal of vice?

The picture is indeed a feeble effort to portray the life and environment of early Christians, if it purports to do so. It is mere travesty on the heroic martyrdom of eight million martyrs whose blood for three hundred years dyed the torture chambers and amphitheatres of Southern Europe, Asia Minor and Northern Africa, until emancipation under Constantine. It is feeble in the portrayal of their form of worship, in fact misleading since "they persisted daily in the breaking of the bread," (Acts) which Catholics call the sacrifice of the Mass. They did not meet in orchards but broke bread in the underground tombs of brother martyrs in the light of six torches; that is, why Catholics have six torches on their altars, and break bread or offer Mass, on altar stones containing the relics of martyrs. The Christian Virgin in the picture is a poor replica of an Agnes Caecilia, Dorothy, Agatha or Lucia and such virgin martyrs. The motivation of the actions of the Christians is a cruel distortion of the truth. When was Titus; the Bishop of Crete, appointed by, and successor to Paul ever in Rome. He died a natural death at the age of 94 and spent the greater part of his life among the Christians. In fact the first to go in Nero's persecution were Peter who was crucified upside down, and Paul, who was beheaded (A.D.). Again the Christians did not hide because they feared death but because (as we have the records) decrees were issued forbidding them rashly exposing their lives in their enthusiasm to defy Caesar and thus die for Christ.

The protests particularly from Catholic hierarchy did not arise over the distortion of fact historical inaccuracy, misrepresenting portrayal, much less, in the rather amusing inattention to historical detail as the printed placard on the coliseum, incorrect Latin syntax, circus elephants to carry away wounded gladiators, the bath of asses milk and many other details—an amusing revelation to students of classics or academics not to speak of patristic theologians or anyone professing a smattering of archaeology. No, gay New York termed the original most immoral. Excursions were made in Ohio, Virginia, Kentucky. The Paramount-Public corporation eventually under popular pressure, definitely ordered the elimination of the most offensive scenes. The essential dialogue must be admitted suggestive and this under the title "The Sign of the Cross." We are not prudish but detailed portrayal of Bacchanian orgies, especially before the young is, to say the least, harmful. Yes, Catholic press and Catholic societies were the formal cause of the cuttings. Vigorous united protest generally gets under the skins of unscrupulous film promoters. The management of theaters, as in the case in our town

ALBERTA NEWS SERVICE

(Issued by the Publicity Commission, Government Buildings, Edmonton Alberta.)

BABY BEEF WINNERS

Championship of the baby beef breeders of Central and Southern Alberta by junior farmers was won by Geo. Biggar of Calgary with Jean Henderson, of Lacombe, second at the annual Calgary Spring Stock show and sale.

FEBRUARY OIL PRODUCTION

Alberta Oil Production for February was as follows — quantities being in barrels of 35 Imperial gallons:

Turner Valley Naptha	57,202
Turner Valley Light
Crude	1,739
Red Coulee Border, Koho
Crude	2,760
Wainwright, Heavy Crude	526

TOTAL 62,227

In January production totalled 70,356 barrels. February being a short month, the totals are down slightly but the production per day was nearly as great as in January. In Turner Valley, stocks of oil increased something over 8,000 barrels as compared with the end of January and totalled 3,569 barrels at the end of February. Local sales were some 4,000 barrels greater than in January and deliveries to the refineries some 10,000 barrels less than in January.

TO REPRESENT ALBERTA

Elimination contests for the selection of grain judging teams which will represent the young farmers of Alberta at the World's Grain Congress at Regina in July have been completed under the auspices of the field crops branch of the provincial department of agriculture. The team which will compete in the inter-college competition and which has been selected from students and ex-students of the schools of Agriculture and Agricultural College, will be taken from the following five men, the team consists of three and one alternate: Messrs. J. L. Boulton, R. M. Putman, E. E. Swindlehurst, R. Hansen, A. W. Platt all of whom are at present attending the agricultural college. The team to participate in the intermediate competition, to consist of three and an alternate, will be selected from the following: Wayne Strange, Claresholm; Don McFadden, Lacombe; Arthur Chelte, Rainier; Herbert Cripps, Clive; Douglas Brisee, Ponoka; Wallace Watson, Provost; and Geo. Rasmusen, Wetaskiwin. The team to represent the junior grain clubs of the province, also to consist of three and an alternate, will be taken from the following: Gordon Ballhorn, Wetaskiwin; Wm. Douglas, Lacombe; Paul Billwiller, Hanna; Geo. Darrock, Lacombe. It is hoped to be able to arrange for a short period of training for these teams at the Olds school of agriculture prior to going to Regina where they will compete against teams from other provinces of Canada and other countries.

MINERAL PRODUCTION

Total value of mineral production for 1932 is placed at $21,143,833. Only 343 tons of tar sands were taken out last year valued at $1,372.

COURSE IN PLACER MINING

The keen interest developed recently in placer mining in the Province led the provincial school of technology at Calgary last June to put on a special two weeks' course in placer mining technique. The result was that 129 persons enrolled. The course is to be repeated this spring for three weeks from April 24 to May 12. Lectures and laboratory demonstrations will be given in the course.

NEW HOMESTEAD LANDS

Specified crown lands in areas of the province will be thrown open at an early date for settlement, according to an announcement made by Hon. R. G. Reid, provincial treasurer and minister of lands and mines. Announcement as to the particular areas will be made later on, when necessary investigations are completed. Areas will include certain tracts in the west central portion of the province.

ALBERTA PILOT HONORED

For the third time an Alberta air pilot has won the McKee trophy for the most conspicuous air service in Canada. The trophy for 1932 goes to Captain Maurice Burbridge of Edmonton. Two other Edmonton pilots had won the trophy in previous years.

ALBERTAN WINS SCHOLARSHIP

An Alberta University student, Donald Cameron, B.Sc., is among the six Canadians to win the Carnegie scholarship for study of Scandinavian folk schools. Mr. Cameron will spend this summer in Europe as a result.

CHANGE IN DISTRICT COURTS

Formation of two district courts in this province, instead of there being one in each of the sixteen judicial districts, is provided for in a bill to amend the District Courts Act just submitted to the legislature. The act provides for one district court in Northern Alberta, having jurisdiction in the territory north of and including Red Deer. The district court of southern Alberta would function in the region south of Red Deer. Five judges would comprise the district court of Northern Alberta with a similar number for the southern Alberta territory.

ALBERTA SCHOOL STATISTICS

A total of 3395 school districts with 5,729 rooms, were in operation in 1932 according to the annual report of the provincial department of education. The total enrolment in these schools was 170,795. There were 5,844 teachers employed. The enrolment in the 59 city and town schools was 56,744, while in 17 separate schools there were 5,131 pupils and 42,643 in other graded schools. In 646 consolidated schools there were 7193 pupils. The record of attendance for all schools was 90.02 p.c. of the monthly enrolment. The average number of days for which the schools kept open was 195 while 96.7 p.c. of the schools kept open for more than 160 days. The interesting feature of the report is the fact that since 1912 the percentage of pupils in grades 7 to 12 has increased from 14.66 p.c. to 32.42 p.c.

CONSOLIDATE TAX ARREARS

Consolidation of tax arrears for payment over a period of 6 years is provided in a bill introduced into the legislature.

SOME MOTHER'S BOY

(By Amanda Nilsson)

As we walk along life's highway,
And we greet the cumb-ring throng;
We may meet one fallen brother
We may meet one who did wrong;
O do not shun or slight him,
From him turn not away;
If we but treat him kindly,
He may choose the better way.

Greet him kindly and speak gently,
It will fill his heart with joy;
Greet him kindly and speak gently,
For he is some mother's boy.

He has been some mother's comfort,
He has been some mother's pride;
She has fondled and caressed him,
She has been his gentle guide;
But this life is full of sorrow,
And this world bristled with sin;
What today you do is a blessing,
On the mother's grief may bring.

Greet him kindly and speak gently,
It will fill his heart with joy;
Greet him kindly and speak gently,
For he is some mother's boy.

Not a week passes that you are not being canvassed by representatives of nationally advertised products to stock and push them, and to give them good window and counter displays

Local Retailers Is It Fair ?

Their Representatives tell you of the large sums of money being spent in metropolitan daily newspapers and nationally-circulated magazines, to create and maintain consumer demand, and they try hard to persuade you that such "remote" advertising will surely create and sustain large local demand

It is admitted that it is advantageous to you and your customers for you to buy nationally advertised products, but such products will sell faster if they are locally advertised, in this newspaper, in addition to being advertised in non-local publications.

There is no good or sound reason why a national advertiser should not do local advertising in his paper. You will be told, when you say to the representative of firms canvassing you to stock and push his firm's product, "Oh, we could never afford to do local advertising." What he really means when he says such words, is that he doesn't expect large local sales. If he did, then he would see that these local sales can provide a sum of money adequately to maintain a local advertising campaign.

Why should you help a national advertiser to develop his business in the territory covered by the circulation of this newspaper without advertising co-operation from him?

You provide local distribution facilities for manufacturers of branded products, and your value to them is recognized. Why, then, should these manufacturers not assist you to sell these goods, if stocked by you, by a series of local advertisements, perhaps carrying your name as local distributor, published in this newspaper?

The more frequently and vigorously you present your point of view to national advertisers, direct and through the representative who calls on you, the more surely will you persuade them to accept it
